Romance Author Rosemarie Piemonte of Downers Grove, Illinois will be the August 1 Global Talk Radio guest.

(PRWEB) July 31, 2006 -- Romance Author Rosemarie Piemonte of Downers Grove, Illinois will be the August 1 Global Talk Radio guest. Those with Internet access can listen live to Calling All Authors with host Valerie Connely, on Tuesday, August 1 from 7-8 pm by logging on to www.globaltalkradio.com. Rosemarie will be interviewed about her book, "Falling Roses." Guests can call in and talk to the author.

"This is an exciting opportunity for me to talk to my readers," Piemonte said.

Rosemarie is a full time secretary for a local fire department in the western suburbs of Chicago. She has earned an A.A. degree in Criminal Justice, and a diploma in Children's Literature. She is an active member in the Illinois Fire Chief's Secretaries Association as well as served as a recording secretary for the Illinois Association of Administrative Professionals (IAAP). She is also an active member of the Authors Marketing Group, an interactive organization for authors in and near the Chicago area.

Rosemarie has a quirky sense of humor and her book of romance, suspense, drama, secret baby, and a love triangle will keep you turning pages!

Additional information is available at the author's website <http://k.1asphost.com/fallingroses/>
