(PRWEB) August 29, 2006 -- Falling Roses, a romance novel, by Rosemarie Piemonte received five angels this month, along with a Recommended Read review, with Fallen Angel Reviews. A Recommended Read is the highest review that a book can receive with Fallen Angel Reviews.

"I couldn't believe it," Piemonte said. "This is my first review that I've ever received. I was scared to open the web page, and then when I saw five angels and the Recommended Read logo, I was in shock."

Falling Roses expands on five years of a young girl's life. The novel begins when Gabrielle Newtonendie runs away from home. While walking on the sidewalk in search of a payphone to call her father, she is hit by a car. While in a coma, and struggling to break free, rock star Johnny Ravolie sits beside her. After months of waiting for him, Johnny is able to take Gabrielle back to Long Island with him. However, Johnny's ex-girlfriend continues to destroy their lives. Gabrielle is kidnapped twice, while Johnny does everything in his power to keep her safe.

"The suspense will keep you glued to the pages and hoping and praying that Johnny and Gabrielle will be able to get rid of Bernadette and be able to have a life together," Falling Angel Reviews wrote.

Rosemarie has a quirky sense of humor and her book of romance, suspense, drama, secret baby, and a love triangle will keep you turning pages. To read the review visit the author's website at <http://k.1asphost.com/fallingroses/>.
